

Minor in Linguistics

18 credits, distributed as follows

All of the Following, 6 Credits

LING 101: Introduction to Linguistics

LING 202: Science of Language

Comments

Take first term in minor

Pre-Req.: LING 101

Projected Offering

Each Fall & Spring

Each Fall & Spring

One of the following, 3 Credits

LING 403: Introduction to Phonology

LING 404: Structure of Language

LING 418: Meaning & Language Use

CGSC 490: Philosophy of Language

Pre-Req.: LING 202

Pre-Req.: LING 101

Pre-Req.: LING 101

Each Fall

Each Spring

Every other year, Fall*

Every other year, Fall*

* LING418 & CGSC490 are offered in alternating years

9 Additional Credits, 3 credits of which must be 300 or 400-level.

- Any LING course
- Any LING-cross-listed course, with the exception of Independent Studies.
- CGSC 170: Introduction to Cognitive Science

Policies

- Students must earn a C- or higher in all courses used for the LING minor.
- Students may not take 600-level courses and have them count towards the LING minor.
- With the exception of LING 101, students minoring in Linguistics and minoring in Cognitive Science may not count a single course towards both minors.
- With the exception of LING 101 and CGSC 485, students minoring in Linguistics and majoring Cognitive Science may not count a single course towards both degrees.

This form was last updated July 25, 2016